

Speaker biographies

Dr Suzanne Graham is Associate Professor of International Relations in the Department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Johannesburg (UJ), where she is also Vice Dean of Teaching and Learning in the Faculty of Humanities, and Co-President of the Regional Integration and Social Cohesion (RISC-RISE) Consortium, headquartered at UJ. Dr Graham specialises in international relations and foreign policy. Her past research has focused on terrorist waves and corresponding terrorist groups.

Sven Botha is pursuing his master's degree in the Department of Politics and International Relations at UJ. His research focuses on the evaluation of counter-terrorism programmes in the African context via a gendered lens. Sven's research interests include terrorism, counter-terrorism, preventing/countering-violent extremism, gender, diplomacy, and foreign policy on which he has previously worked and published. He is also a proactive promoter of early-career development in the Social Sciences.